

Greater Montréal: a thriving hub for innovative manufacturers

2024 Edition

Why innovative manufacturing companies choose Montréal

▲ A strong manufacturing sector with more than 240,000 workers and over 6,300 companies

▲ Canada's leading province for R&D investments in % of GDP with $11.5B+ in spending

▲ A collaborative environment fostering innovation through an extensive network of research centres, industrial clusters and financing organizations

▲ A world-class hub in artificial intelligence thanks to organizations such as Scale AI, an AI supply chain supercluster

▲ Close to 30,000 university students are enrolled in programs relevant to the industry

▲ An 18% cost advantage compared to other major metropolitan areas in Canada and the U.S.

▲ Cutting-edge technologies and expertise in areas such as 5G, IoT, robotics, additive manufacturing and many more

▲ Canada's university capital, with $1.6B+ in annual funding dedicated to research

▲ Broad government support and numerous advantageous tax incentives to help develop the industry of tomorrow
